INSTRUCTIONS

You may use some supporting visual aids such as images or photographs in the context. This activity aims to assess your speaking skills, not the reading ones, so make sure you prepare what you are about to say and do not use extra help. You must speak in a natural and fluent pace.

1. Traditional food from an English speaking country (Cooking dishes)

Making a recipe of a traditional dish from an English-speaking country (The USA, The UK –England, Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland-, Australia, New Zealand, India, Jamaica, South Africa, etc.)

Students must gather information about traditional food, origin, traditions, ingredients, and preparation. Show the ingredients and the procedure to prepare it, and the final dish.

2. A trip advisor

Imagine you are a famous youtuber whose main purpose is to give people advice about which places to visit around the world.

Go online and research for one English speaking country. Make sure you gather as much information as possible as you will be advising people about this worth visiting place.

Make suggestions and recommendations to people about important aspects to consider before, and during the trip.

3. Lifestyles and destinations

Do's and Don'ts when in an English speaking country

Traveling abroad is a great experience, but it is necessary to know about the country and its culture to avoid getting in trouble there.

Talk about cultural differences among countries and cultures.

4. Famous people and lifestyles

Be a biographer talking about a celebrity from an English speaking country.

Making especial emphasis on specific information related to biodata, why she or he is famous and everything you consider relevant.
