THE COMMUNITY COUNSELOR

A community counselor provides counseling support and rehabilitation services for people going through all kinds of difficulties in life. A counselor interacts with people of all ages, groups and families, as well as members of related service fields like health care or school administration.

Making a difference...

Students are going to identify different issues inside the community they live in.

In a 3-5 minute presentation, you're going to make a proposal to face those social problems with a possible solution or actions to overcome them to enhance quality of life in our society.

INSTRUCTIONS

You may use some supporting visual aids such as images or photographs in the context.

This activity aims to assess your speaking skills, not the reading ones, so make sure you prepare what you are about to say and do not use extra help.

You must speak in a natural and fluent pace.
